

Only a moron would consider stopping the competition within the telecommunications industry right now. Do NOT allow the monopolistic phone companies (particularly the Bells) to, once again, take control of an industry that they manage so poorly.

I, as the consumer, cannot and will not stand by for yet another travesty at the expense of the consumer.